7.1.9: Sensitization of students and employees of the institution to the constitutional obligations: Values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens.

India is a land of ‘Unity in Diversity’. The differences in physical attributes such as skin colour, caste, creed, cultural and religious practices etc. are looked upon in India as varieties that enrich the society and the nation as a whole.

The different languages, subcultures, religions and ethnic diversities are governed and guided by the constitution irrespective of caste, religion, race or sex. The college sensitizes the students and staff of the institution to the constitutional obligation about values, rights, duties and responsibilities as a citizen of the country.

The elements of right attitude, right conduct and respect for the individuals are inculcated in the students of the college. The institute celebrates the Independence day and Republic day with great fervour and the students takes active part in the celebrations. On the Republic day, different socially relevant projects developed by the students are exhibited to the students and prominent guests invited on the day to judge and present their views on the projects displayed. The institute invites eminent persons during festivals of national importance to inspire the staff and students thereby emphasizing the duties and responsibilities as citizens of the country.

The college establishes policies that reflect core values. The code of conduct is disseminated to the students and staff of the college and everyone is required to follow the conduct rules. The college has a NSS unit where in the NSS volunteers take an active part in creating awareness among the students towards societal cause. The volunteers carryout activities such as ‘Swatch Bharat campaign’, ‘Daan Utsav’, ‘help the aged’, ‘donate to the poor’ etc. that widely benefit the society. The Eco-tech club of the college conducts programmes on saving environment, ethics and social responsibilities.

The institution conducts programs that helps sensitize staff and students to the constitutional obligations:

- 1. Awareness programs on duties and responsibilities as citizens of the country.
 - a. Constitution day
 - b. Independence day
